

Assistants Chief Education Program

Module Evaluation: I-2 Communications 2025Jul04

1. Communication is a useful skill for a Chief, but not the most important.
True or False
2. Communications with your precinct team:
 - a. Is a concern before the elections when you are assembling and building your team.
 - b. Is a key activity on the day of the election to make sure the election runs smoothly.
 - c. Is something you do after the election to review what worked and what did not, to thank your team, and to remind them of the next election.
 - d. A and C only are correct
 - e. A, B, and C are correct
3. The Chief communicates with:
 - a. Officers of election and Assistant Chiefs
 - b. Voters
 - c. Poll watchers, candidates and the media
 - d. Registrar's office
 - e. All of the above
4. Before the election, EOs should be told at least their setup and starting assignments so that:
 - a. They will be able to prepare and review education materials before they arrive.
 - b. They know what to do when they arrive at the precinct for setup and who they will be working with.
 - c. They know what job to do after setup.
 - d. B and C only are correct.
 - e. A, B, and C are correct.
5. When communicating with your EOs, they are responsible for everything you tell them in email, even if they do not acknowledge getting mail from you. True or False
6. Written communication in email has the advantage of consistency, however it suffers from a lack of immediate feedback and in the ability to convey tone of voice.
True or False

7. All precinct communications with EOs should include:
 - a. The Chief and the Assistant Chief(s)
 - b. The Electoral Board
 - c. The Registrar
 - d. Candidates
 - e. None of the above

8. A written communication plan, outline, or timeline is never of value in planning the next election. True or False

9. Communication is always two-sided, the message that is delivered, and the message that is received. True or False

10. When communicating, repeating information is never a good idea because people will get bored. True or False